

POLITICAL POINTS.

AFFECTING THE ISSUES OF THE PRESENT STATE CAMPAIGN.

The Candidates for the Legislature in Wilkes—Another County for Everett For Congress.

WASHINGTON, Ga., June 18.—[Special.]—There was a meeting here this morning, of farmers from all parts of Wilkes county, to appoint another candidate for the lower house of the legislature in place of Mr. Brantley M. Callaway, who declined the nomination. They appointed Judge Thomas Meriwether, who is the president of Wilkes County Alliance. Judge Meriwether is a man of sound judgment, high integrity, and much dignity of character, and is a man of much intelligence. He will, with his colleague, Judge S. H. Hardman, make Wilkes county respected in the legislature. Judge Meriwether is not a native of Wilkes, but he belongs to a family, the Meriwethers, who were among the early settlers and identified with the early history of Wilkes. He is the son of Hon. James Meriwether, who, with General Andrew Jackson, made one of the Indian treaties to which Georgia traces her present possessions. James Meriwether was a native of Wilkes, and represented Georgia in Congress.

WILL BROUGHTON RUN?

A Question Which is Now Agitating the Wilkes District.

MADISON, Ga., June 18.—[Special.]—Is William A. Broughton going to make the race for congress? That is a question which is heard on all sides in Madison county. Colonel Broughton has just returned from Athens, where he has been attending a meeting of the class of '70, of which he was a member while in the university. While in Athens he was seen by Larry Gault, who just now seems to be at the head of the alliance in the eighth, and Larry, it seems, had some weight with Mr. Broughton. The special in the Constitution of today relative to Mr. Broughton's candidacy created quite a great deal of political talk.

THE CONSTITUTION REPORTER MET MR. BROUGHTON ON THE STREET AND ASKED HIM ABOUT HIS MAKING THE RACE.

"I have been urged to make the race by parties in various parts of the district, and for the past few days the requests have been very pressing. If I enter the field, I shall enter it standing upon the glorious platform of the Farmers' Alliance, and if I am elected I shall labor earnestly in the interest of the agricultural classes especially. I think it high time that the farmers had some showing in the halls of congress. I am no politician, however, and shall not attempt to canvass the whole district. However, I am not fully decided, and I will give the matter consideration. Colonel Broughton is well known all over the state as treasurer of the state alliance, and is a prominent and wealthy farmer of Morgan, and president of the Morgan alliance. If he comes out, which we doubt not he will do, some lively times are yet to be witnessed in the old eighth.

A POLITICIAN TALKS.

THE CONSTITUTION reporter talked with a prominent politician of this city today. "If Broughton comes in the race," said he, "the first move I shall make will be to arrange a caucus between Lawson, Colley and Olive, and try and induce two of them to come out of the race, leaving the field to the other remaining one and to Broughton. If this cannot be accomplished, it is probable that still another candidate from Morgan county will enter the race, a man whose name I cannot mention yet, and who will make it warm for Broughton and all the other candidates. However, I hope this will not be necessary, and in the event Broughton does run, I think two of the others can be induced to come out." The gentleman, who is as well versed in politics as any man in the district, stated further, that it is a disgrace to the old eighth district that affairs should be so badly mixed just now.

THE FOURTH DISTRICT CONVENTION

Fixed for the 30th of July in LaGrange.

LAGRANGE, Ga., June 18.—[Special.]—Mr. E. B. Bradford, member of the democratic executive committee of the fourth congressional district, returned from Columbus this morning. The committee decided upon LaGrange as the place for holding the convention, which will be on the 30th day of July. Columbus and Newnan made efforts to get the convention, but LaGrange is nearest the center of the district, and consequently much more convenient for the delegates.

There are four candidates in the field—Harris, T. W. Grimes, of Muscogee; H. R. Harris, of Meriwether; S. W. Harris, of Carroll, and C. L. Meriwether, of Coweta. It is generally conceded that the two most named candidates will develop the most strength in the convention.

The Candidates in Newton.

COVINGTON, Ga., June 18.—[Special.]—Mr. H. L. Graves, in the Covington Star, formally announces that he will seek the nomination as the democratic candidate for the legislature in the primary to be held on July 1st. He is a straight-out democrat, a man of fine sense and high moral character, is well educated and will make an excellent representative if he is elected.

The Candidacy of Hon. Thomas Hardman for the office of governor is meeting with hearty approval in this county, and it is thought that if he will come up and see us he can carry the county.

Mr. McLean in the Hands of His Friends.

BARNESVILLE, Ga., June 18.—[Special.]—In Monday's Constitution a Zebulon correspondent says that J. P. McLean had announced himself as a candidate for the legislature, which, Mr. McLean says, is not true. Mr. McLean positively states that he has not announced himself, but is in the hands of his friends and the citizens of Pike, and if they seek him for the office he will run, but he doesn't intend seeking the office.

They Are in the Hands of Their Friends.

CARNSVILLE, Ga., June 18.—[Special.]—The announcement of Colonel Thomas Hardman for governor was well received here, and he may carry the county. He has many friends here who are anxious to support a true and tried democrat, and one who is not riding a hobby.

They Are in the Hands of Their Friends.

They are in the hands of their friends, and if elected will make Madison county a good representative in the next legislature.

THE LINE DRAWN

BY THE GREAT ROMANCE OF SPALDING COUNTY.

He Believed the Watch Story, But He Drew the Line on the Pinewood Fire—Topics of an Evening.

GRIFPIN, Ga., June 18.—[Special.]—"I'll never believe Will Sullivan again," said Colonel E. Washington Hammon today. "Some time ago I was out there fishing. 'Somebody reported that the vote was to whom they would recommend to the democratic convention, which meets at Calhoun, to nominate the candidate for congress, was fifteen for R. W. Everett, of Polk county, and seven for Felix Corput, of Floyd.

The counties stood as follows: For Corput, Floyd, Chattooga and Dade; and for Everett—Calhoun, Murray, Whitfield, Cobb, Paulding, Harlson, Gordon and Polk. The meeting also expressed their preference, by vote, for Northern governor. A prominent county official offered to bet five hundred dollars that Clements in a general election in Floyd could beat the alliance candidate by eight hundred votes. This offer was made by a man who knows the people.

WANDERING WOOLLEY

Brought to the Point and J. T. Henderson Fed on Facts.

ENTRONS CONSTRUCTION: In Major Woolley's card, headed "A Campaign Lie Exposed," he would divert the public mind, and especially the farmers of Georgia, from the true issues of this campaign for commissioner of agriculture, and attempts to do so by a personal onslaught on me. As in other cases where the department has been criticised, an employee comes forward, and taking a handful of fish and slings it at the public. He has the temerity to approach their stronghold. These methods may please their chief, but will not change the issues of the campaign. And just how I would ask, is it not a peculiar case that Judge Henderson is distinguished as the only officer who persistently fought the bill making his office elective, and that now, when questions are being asked of his administration of this office, the question is always met by violent personal abuse from either the commissioner or his subordinates? Mr. Woolley is a humorist, and that one "Farmer" should dare to investigate a charge that he (Woolley) call a "lie."

Now, Mr. Woolley may expect these same "farmers" to more thoroughly investigate this corruption, even though the major's nerves be entirely destroyed.

In his effort to make me responsible for this article, he excites my sympathy and contempt; for both the assertions, first, that I "spied" this communication, and second that I made the charge mentioned in same, are false. I did not write the article, and knew nothing of its publication until it was returned from lower Georgia. I saw it in THE CONSTITUTION. But I here take occasion to say that I unqualifiedly endorse "Farmer's" action in making questions of this kind plain, and throw light upon the workings of the agricultural department. Major Woolley well knew that Captain T. J. Lyon had made this charge; that he (Woolley) in the presence of others of undoubted veracity, had told him (Lyon) that Judge Henderson had increased the salaries of inspectors from $1,200 (as provided by law) to $1,500 (as provided by law). He had returned $125 of this increased salary to Judge Henderson. The above is the charge, and I, in my published letter, at Captain Lyon's request, refused to believe it. I am sorry information on this subject. Now, how is this met? Captain Lyon lives in Mr. Woolley's county, is president there of the Farmers' Alliance, and is in every way responsible. Is he called upon for an explanation, denial or retraction of this "foul slander" by either Judge Henderson or Major Woolley? Is not the charge of sufficient importance to demand of Mr. Woolley, whose nerves are in such a sensitive condition, that he face his accuser, the man who charges him with being the originator of the "lie"? When this question was first agitated I wrote immediately to Major Woolley, giving him the opportunity to deny this accusation.

THE ALARM OF FIRE

While the School Commencement Was in Progress.

JONKSBORO, Ga., June 18.—[Special.]—During the commencement exercises of the Middle Georgia college last night, an alarm of fire was sounded, which proved to be the residence of Colonel C. W. Hodnett. The house, which was a one and one-half story frame building, was entirely destroyed. A small portion of the contents were saved. The cause of the fire is unknown, the entire family being at the college hall. Colonel Hodnett had $1,000 insurance on the building and $500 on the contents in the Atlanta Home Insurance company. The college hall was crowded, but by judicious management no stampede occurred and no one was injured.

IN MACON'S COURTS.

What Was Done in the Tribunal Yesterday.

MACON, Ga., June 18.—[Special.]—The negro, Joe Paul, on trial in the superior court yesterday, was acquitted, as expected. William Kirkly, a young white man, is on trial today for forgery. Ed Cassidy, a white man, is on trial for the same offense. He was fined $100 today for keeping a tippling-house open on the Sabbath.

THE GROWING CROPS.

Another Good Year for the Farmers Is Promised.

WASHINGTON, Ga., June 18.—[Special.]—The farmers report that crops are excellent in all parts of Wilkes. Mr. F. P. Slaton reports cotton in his neighborhood as nearly waist high and blooming. Some parts of the country are as good as ready for the general harvest. The crops are as good as ready for the general harvest. The crops are as good as ready for the general harvest.

SLASHED FOURTEEN TIMES.

A Carving Affair in Troup County, in Which Blood Flows.

LAGRANGE, Ga., June 18.—[Special.]—George Boddie and another negro, named Jones, who work on Mrs. Nancy's place, a few miles north of LaGrange, had a difficulty Monday afternoon. Boddie attacked Jones, who was in a cart, dragged him out, and inflicted thirteen wounds on his body and arms with a knife. The cutting was done so quick that Jones could do nothing to defend himself. Dr. Baugh attended the unfortunate negro, and had to make a number of stitches in the gaping wounds. He is very badly cut, though he may recover. It is not known what caused the difficulty.

The Secret of Health is the power to eat, digest and assimilate a proper quantity of wholesome food. This can never be the case while impurities exist in the system. The blood must be purified; it is the vital principle, ramifying through every part of the body. Dr. Tuttle's Pills expel all impurities and vitalize the whole system.

A Noted Divine says:

"I have been using Dr. Tuttle's Liver Pills for the past three months for dyspepsia, weak stomach and nervousness. I never had anything to do so much good. I recommend them as the best pills in existence, and do all I can to acquaint others with their merits. They are a real blessing."

THE VILE TOOTH-BRUSH

The Cause of a Colored Woman's Sudden Death.

ADAMSVILLE, Ga., June 18.—[Special.]—Just out of town a negro woman about thirty years old, apparently in good health, started to the wash-place to wash clothes, leaving at her home a mother and twin children six months old. When within sixty feet of the well she fell dead. Her sudden death was not discovered until after two hours. She was lying on her back with her turn of dirty clothes beside her. The men had cut brush and covered her up to keep the noodys off. A clue to her death lay beside her, a tooth-brush saturated with vile tobacco, causing death from heart disease, and such was the verdict of the coroner's jury, without any post-mortem examination.

HONORING GEORGIA'S DEAD.

Hon. Tom Watson's Tribute to Stephens.

CRAWFORDVILLE, Ga., June 18.—[Special.]—The Stephens' monument fund is swelling. Hon. Thomas E. Watson adds fifty dollars to the subscription. Noble-hearted Georgians will see that Mr. Stephens' grave is fitly honored.

Railroad Magnates Traveling.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., June 18.—[Special.]—A special train of eleven coaches, containing the officials of the plant system and representatives of the boards of trade of Charleston, Savannah, Jacksonville, Brunswick, Waycross and Valdosta, passed through the city early this morning on route to Montgomery, where they will be banqueted by the merchants in honor of the opening of the Alabama Midland railway. About a hundred men were in the party. They took breakfast here at the Gulf.

The Melon Movement.

VALDOSTA, Ga., June 18.—[Special.]—Following melons were moved from the line of the Florida and Western road June 18th: New York 5, Boston 21, Cincinnati 5, Atlanta 7, Philadelphia 11, Chicago 7, Indianapolis 7, Baltimore 15, Birmingham 15, Charleston 3, Savannah 1, St. Louis 2, Evansville 3, Washington 2, Richmond 2, Memphis 1, New Orleans 4, Pittsburg 1, Norfolk, Va. 3, Terre Haute 1, Knoxville, Tenn. 1; Toledo, O. 2; Cairo, Ill. 1; Decatur, Ill. 1; Wilmington, N. C. 1; Lincoln, Neb. 1; Montreal, Canada 1; Syracuse, N. Y. 1.

The Mother Was Dead.

CRAWFORDVILLE, Ga., June.—[Special.]—Early this morning, as Brown Tappan was passing the house of Andrew Lowe, in the western portion of this place, his attention was attracted by the unusually loud cry of a child. On entering the house, he found, to his horror, the wife of Andrew Lowe lying on the bed cold and dead. The child was alone some time during the night. All colored.

An Editor in Great Luck.

WADLEY, Ga., June 18.—[Special.]—Captain W. C. Ivey, editor and proprietor of the Wadley Herald, was today appointed manager of the Wadley, Bartow and Louisville telegraph office at this place, and will also act as traindispatcher of the Wadley and Louisville railroad.

Dyspepsia's victims are numbered by thousands.

So are those who have been restored to health by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The Crop Prospects.

The crop prospects were never finer. The growing accounts are daily coming in from all sections of the state, and they all show a never suffered a day for rain since their crops were planted. If the seasonable weather continues the farmers of Tallapoosa county will be richly rewarded for their labors.

MALARIAL FEVER is caused by Microbes.

The germs are in the air you breathe. Take Ransom's Microbe Killer and that will kill the germ and you cannot have an ache or pain. For sale by W. F. Parkhurst, sole agent, 96 South Pryor street.

Up in the Nineties.

WASHINGTON, Ga., June 18.—[Special.]—The thermometer of the signal service kept here reports as the highest point each day: On Saturday, 91 degrees; on Sunday, 92 degrees; on Monday, 93 degrees. Rain in the neighborhood has cooled off a little our air in town.

Two Pledges of Love.

ADAMSVILLE, Ga., June 18.—[Special.]—Mrs. John Copp, of Hall's station, presented her husband with twin boys, yesterday, of the weight of ten pounds each. They are the attraction of the community at present.

Let Him Get Caught.

From the Knoxville Tribune. An Arkansas editor complains that some people who advertise on the plea that a newspaper is never read, but says: "Let him be caught kissing his neighbor's wife or trying to hold up the side of a building some dark night, and his newspaper will be read."

The Newspaper as Literature.

From the Philadelphia Ledger. The well-edited newspaper of today is not "cheap" in the sense of books and periodicals. It is making readers of them. It is not a "wash of literature"; it is largely literature itself. It is the first, most influential, the most popular of public teachers, which it could not be if it did not deserve to be.

Let Her Wave.

From the Charleston, S. C. News and Observer. An alligator has captured another piranany in Florida. Let the bloody shirt wave.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. A Boston lady, whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy his own instead of Hood's; he told me that Hood's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I had taken Hood's Sarsaparilla, knew what it was, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other. When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes and my friends frequently speak of it." MRS. ELLA A. GORF, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.

THE GRAND JURY.

THE PRESENTMENTS TO BE READ IN OPEN COURT TODAY.

There is a Recommendation for the Issuance of Bonds for Building a New Jail, the Present One Being Inadequate.

The grand jury adjourns today.
The adjournment would have occurred yesterday, but for the fact that Judge Marshall J.
Clarke postponed the hearing of the grand jury presentments until this morning at 9:30 o'clock.
The present grand jury has done a great deal of work, and has done it in a most satisfactory manner.

A great number of true bills have been found, and few of the cases growing out of these have gone unconvicted.
Two justices of the peace, Justice Fisher, of Cook's district, and Justice Turner, of north Atlanta, have been elected, and seem to have given general satisfaction to the citizens of those districts for which they were elected.

PUBLIC WORKS.
The public works were found to be in a rather unsatisfactory condition, and a recommendation will be made to have them fixed up.
The almshouse was examined and is pronounced to be the finest institution of the kind in the country. The management is admirable, and Dr. Haape, the superintendent, has devoted his entire attention to the improvement of the institution and the care of the unfortunate who find an asylum there.

The chain-gangs, state and county, were found to be in excellent condition, cleanly quarters and good feeding being the rule in the management of these prison camps. The separation of male and female convicts recommended.

The court-house was found to be in good condition, and with the improvements in course of construction will make it one of the most roomy and commodious structures in the city.

THE HORRIBLE JAIL.

The condition of Fulton county jail was found to be really horrible.
The sewerage system is such that the jail is rendered not only very unhealthy but exceedingly offensive, and the grand jury will recommend the erection of a new building.
To secure the fund for the building it will be recommended that the county issue bonds, which it is thought will pay for the erection of an adequate prison building, one that will be a credit to the state, county and city.

The records of the various county officers were examined and found to be correctly kept,
and in first-class order.

The general presentments will be filed today,
and will be made public through the newspapers at once.
Among those to whom thanks of the grand jury are tendered, are Mr. W. P. H. Smith, a solicitor, and his able assistant, Mr. John Mongahan.

A Safe Guard.

Few people living in a malarial country but occasionally need a vigorous tonic, either to keep off the malarial fever or else to cure the disease if it gets into the system. There is no more uncomfortable disease that affects humanity than chills and fever. It drives away energy and ambition. It makes one feel dull and mean all over. A safe guard against the disease and a sure cure is Smith's Tonic Syrup, made by Dr. John Ball, of Louisville, Ky. A single bottle will do for an entire family. It is better than quinine, as it does not disturb the system, and follows its use.
The use of quinine causes a buzzing in the ears, dizzy sensations, nausea and sometimes even convulsions and paralysis. Use Smith's Tonic Syrup and all such danger is avoided.
In fact it has all the good medicinal qualities of quinine with none of its evil nature.

Children Enjoy

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be costly or bilious the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.
There will be an ice cream festival and lawn party this evening at the residence of Mr. Frank E. McDonald in Edgewood, for the benefit of the Methodist parsonage. A fine band of music will add to the pleasure of the evening. All are invited to attend.

"Have you Marie Bashkirtseff's Memoirs?"
"I have a little book by Marie Skirskibatsoff?"
"I want a copy of Bashkirtseff's Reminiscences."
"Have you a little volume, bound in white, by a Russian girl? I have forgotten what her name was."
"Can you send me that Bashkirtseff's name's diary?"
"Say, have you got that new in Russian literature?"
And yet a few hours of close study reveals the fact that Bashkirtseff is not very hard to pronounce.

The Cassell Publishing company, of New York, publishes three editions of the "Journal of Marie Bashkirtseff." The one they first issued at $2.00 has been reduced to $1.50; there is another in plainer binding at $1.00, and a third in paper at 50 cents. These editions are printed from the same plate. Nothing has been suppressed in this translation of Marie Bashkirtseff's Journal.
Mrs. Serrano simply put off such parts as were undaring or trivial. One of the very reasons why the sale of the American edition of this journal has been so successful is in the original French is the very fact of judicious editing on the part of the translator. You can now buy a copy of this very interesting book at 50c, postpaid at 50c, from

DON'T GIVE UP

The use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. One bottle may not cure "right off" a complaint of years; persist until a cure is effected. As a general rule, improvement follows shortly after beginning the use of this medicine.
With many people, the effect is immediately noticeable; but some constitutions are less susceptible to medicinal influences than others, and the curative process may, therefore, in such cases, be less prompt. Perseverance in using this remedy is sure of its reward at last. Sooner or later, the most stubborn blood diseases yield to

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"For several years, in the spring months,
I used to be troubled with a drowsy, tired feeling, and a dull pain in the small of my back, so bad, at times, as to prevent my being able to walk, the least sudden motion causing me severe distress. Frequently, boils and rashes would break out on various parts of the body. By the advice of friends, and my family physician, I began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla and continued it till the poison in my blood was thoroughly eradicated."
—L. W. English, Montgomery City, Mo.
"My system was all run down, my skin rough and of yellowish hue. I tried various remedies, and while some of them gave me temporary relief, none of them did any permanent good. At last I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, continuing it exclusively for a considerable time, and am pleased to say that it completely

Cured Me.

I presume my liver was very much out of order, and the blood impure in consequence.
I feel that I cannot too highly recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla to any one afflicted as I was. —Mrs. N. A. Smith, Glover, Vt.
"I suffered from scrofula and blood diseases.
The doctors' prescriptions and several so-called blood-purifiers being of no avail, I was at last advised by a friend to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I did so, and now feel like a new man, being fully restored to health." —C. N. Frink, Decorah, Iowa.

Cottage at Bar Harbor,

Just opposite the fashionable "Lonsburg," for sale to let for season.

This cottage has nine rooms in the main building and four in the annex (kitchen). There is hot and cold water in the butler's pantry and in both bath-rooms.

The interior walls are all finished in hard wood,
painted and paneled lining, or floated plaster.

There is about one-quarter acre of ground containing the house.

The view from the dining-room windows, in N. E.
corner house, takes in the whole of Frenchman's bay, and from the second story piazzas a complete panorama may be had of the scenery in all directions.

The piazzas are ten feet deep and surround three sides of the first story and all four sides of the second story. The three bed-rooms in the first story are 17 feet square and 12 feet high.
There are three communicating parlors 15 feet square. The second story is one large room (used as nursery) 20 feet square; will be made into two rooms if desired.

The dining-room is amply provided with cut glassware and Canton breakfast, dinner and supper service.

The house is handsomely furnished with Oriental rugs and portieres, artistic furniture, wrought iron lamps, andirons, etc.
